

The California Agricultural Irrigation Association Scholarship was organized to give aid to students with a desire to pursue a career in the agricultural irrigation industry.

Who is eligible?

- High school seniors or undergraduate students who are residents of California entering or attending a two or four-year accredited college or university in California
- Student must be considered a full time student by their institution
- Students with a major/concentration in agriculture with the intent to pursue a career in the irrigation industry

How many scholarships are given, and in what amount?

Each year, the CAIA Board of Directors will determine the number of scholarships and the award amounts depending on the funds available. Scholarship awards average $1200 for the academic year, disbursed in two installments, one for the fall semester and one for the spring semester. In addition, scholarship recipients will automatically receive student memberships in CAIA for the duration of their scholarship period.

Application Requirements

Applications are accepted each year and must be accompanied by the following applicable items:

- Completed scholarship application
- College transcript (for those currently enrolled)
- Two (2) letters of recommendation dated within three months of application. One letter from a CAIA member company representative is preferred. A list of CAIA members can be found on the CAIA website (www.calirrigation.com).

Must you be a CAIA Member?

No, although priority will be given to students who are employees of, or have served as an intern for, a CAIA member company.

Are scholarships renewable?

Yes. Past recipients are invited to reapply each academic year. Successive applications must include a completed application form and current college transcript.

Letters of Recommendation

Letters of recommendation must be dated within the last three (3) months and contain the name of the applicant, comments on the applicant's character and abilities, and an opinion of his/her ability to profit from a college education. A parent or close relative cannot be considered as a reference. The name and occupation of each person writing a letter is required. Letters of recommendation are not required from past award recipients.
